

Dear Sirs:I am a long haul truck driver and I rely heavily on satellite radio (XM), especially the traffic and weather channels. Without it, I constantly have to tune my radio dial to find a clear station to provide this information. XM has made my job somewhat safer by the ease with which I can get traffic and weather information.

I urge you to not do anything which will affect this service.
Thank you.

Charles D. Lambert